Dear Sir;---

On the night of the 7th. a poor farmer living in this vicinity had the misfortune to loose his house and contents by fire, in which he had the proceeds of his this years crop--Yesterday he brought in to me a Twenty Dollar Gold Piece and 4 Silver Dollars, which are melted together and asked me to do what I could towards having them redeemed if possible; by todays express I send you this money prepaid, and if you can redeem it please remit proceeds by check to me.

Truly yours

J. R. Bruce
Cashier .

Should you not be able to redeem them, kindly return them to me.
